TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERSHIP IN A RAPIDLY CHANGING WORLD

Program Description

The world's economy is undergoing change and this impacts the way we do business. Transformational leadership is for those leaders who want to inspire their teams to achieve extraordinary outcomes, develop their own leadership ability. Transformational leadership empowers teams to be aligned to the objectives and goals, not only of the team and their immediate leader but also of the organization. It has been proven that transformational leadership can move followers to exceed their performance and lead to higher levels of motivation and commitment to their team and the organization. A transformational leadership driven organization can build strong strategic competency strength through a motivated and engaged employee base. An invaluable asset defining the organization.
