

Lead Less, Achieve More: Smart Delegation for Stronger Teams

Leadership Development

9039

In-Class

8 hours

Course Description:

In today's fast-paced and complex work environments, effective delegation is an essential skill for leaders at all levels. This course is designed to provide participants with the knowledge and tools required to delegate tasks and responsibilities efficiently, thereby enhancing team performance and cultivating a culture of trust and accountability.

Target Audience:

Managers

Course Objectives:

- Understand the four main approaches to leadership.
- Explain the characteristics of an effective delegation process.

Course Outline

Module 1: Leadership and Delegation: Empowering Your Team

- Leadership and Delegation
- Delegation Versus Control
- Approaches to Leadership
- Leadership Styles

Module 2: Why Managers Don't Delegate: Common Barriers and Solutions

- The Process of Delegation
- Why Managers Don't Delegate?
- Clarification of Objectives
- Reward Management

Assessment Strategy:

Participants will be informally assessed based on their interaction during sessions and their participation in group exercises

Upon Successful Completion of this Course, participants will obtain:

0.6 CEUs

Course Language:

English Material
Bilingual Explanation

Prerequisites:

N/A